Programs

- Hepa filters in shared spaces (library and cafeteria)
 - There is already one in the auditorium
- Enrichment Matters:
 - Some are virtual
 - In person 1 per day – going very well.
 - Approx. 90 kids per week (basketball, multisport, chess, etc)

- 2nd session – winter/spring
 - Will reach out with requests for courses
- Outdoor lunch
 - More than 198 volunteers
 - More than 200 lunch sessions
 - Huge thank ou to the office for help
 - Overall a huge success
 - Will continue depending on the weather
 - Will try to keep mats on the concrete if frost/wet

Mrs. Kelley thanked the PTA for everything they do. It is great to see new faces and a lot of Dads for outdoor lunches. We're hoping we can get back to the fun activities, especially with the holidays coming.

Special Education Update (Andrea Zuppas):

- We will be celebrating Inclusive Schools Week Dec 6-10 – supportive and inclusive education for everyone.
- Thank you to Principal Kelley and Mr Eck for the support.

Meredith spoke about her military service

- ROTC William & Mary 2002
- Deployed to Iraq – medical logistics
- Donate if you can to organizations like Purple Heart, Vehicles for Veterans, K9s for Warriors, etc
- Employment – If you're hiring, consider taking a chance on a Veteran
- Support military families – welcome them into new schools (they move a lot), etc.

Christine ended the meeting at 7:38pm
